bread of life

Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me
will never be thirst

GRATITUDE.....

Thanks to you, all my brothers and sisters who have participated at the Presentation of the Holy Shroud of Turin at St John's Catholic Church in Woodhull. I appreciate your readiness to dedicate your time to look at this mysterious and enthralling object that touches millions of people around the world who hold it to be our Lord's burial cloth. In a style incomparable to none other, He has decorated it with the most stunning report of what He has gone through for the sake of our salvation. It appears to us as a gift and challenge, inviting us to look deeper into the mystery of His love for each one of us. When we gaze at it earnestly in the times of trouble, we feel consoled.

Special thanks to all who in a special way have been involved in the preparation of this event including Mr. & Mrs. Philip Steele, Mrs. Bernice Haake and Mrs. Betty Minter.

May God Bless You.

Fr. Stanislaus Mutajwaha

Students for Life is actively serving mothers and saving babies' lives on the campuses of many colleges and universities. They have many fundraisers to help these mothers get scholarships to help them with their extra expenses. They do referrals to pregnancy and parenting organizations. They have showers where their members provide much needed baby items; this I know because my daughter was a member and officer in Students for Life while in college. They participate in projects on campus to display information for moms of all the pregnancy resources available to help them carry their babies to term. Students for Life work hard to combat the Abortion Lobby who is attempting to force all states to perform abortion on demand through all 9 months of pregnancy.

Chuckle for the day.....

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large tray of hot dogs. The nun posted a sign on the hot dog tray, "Take only one. God is watching." Further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies.

One child whispered to another, "Take all you want. God is watching the hot dogs....."
