"IVF (in vitro fertilization) is morally dubious and should not be subsidized by the American Taxpayer" states Calvin Freiburger for LifeSiteNews. The Department of Veterans Affairs has enhanced the offering of IVF to unmarried service members. It is well known that a surplus of embryos result and all are tested and selected, many are then frozen for many years, with high cost to parents. Many are discarded. Four US Representatives have called the VA on this action. This new policy of the VA is morally and legally shocking.
