It is crucial that we continue to be vigilant about our support for the unborn babies and their mothers. 25 states protect the life of the unborn and their mothers. We need to support any law protecting the same that may come up for as vote in our state. Also, we must support any law that may come up supporting the outlawing of the chemical abortion pill. —Susan B Anthony Pro-Life America

In November I asked if CVS in Galesburg was selling the chemical abortion pill and was told they were not yet. Shortly before that I had checked with the Knox County Right-to-Life chairman to see what the status of Walgreens was and she said on the most recent inquiry, they were not selling the chemical abortion pill. When I get the next update, I will inform you. —Paula Steele, Pro-Life Rep for St John Church, Woodhull

THE LIVING SCRIPTURE RETREAT: A SPIRITUAL JOURNEY FOR HEALING AFTER ABORTION

This is the new name of the long-standing retreat program formerly known as Rachel's Vineyard Retreat. These retreats have been held in our Diocese since 2005, and are offered for those struggling with the emotional and spiritual pain of an abortion experience. This healing weekend is for singles or married couples, mothers, fathers, grandparents, siblings, or friends; anyone who may be suffering the effects of an abortion loss.

An upcoming retreat is scheduled for Feb 9-11, 2024. See the brochures on the bulletin board for more info on this retreat and the one in October.

Please pray for the safety & well-being our Military & First Responders:
LT David Alepra, Emma Bjorling, Nathan Lewis-Bresnahan, Tyler Lewis-Bresnahan, CPL Keanen Dean, TSgt Travis Jefko

Here I am Lord

Speak, for your servant is listening." With those few words, Samuel humbles himself and declares his loyalty and obedience to God. There are perhaps for many of us challenges in those words. Initially, Samuel responds, "Here I am," but thinks it was Eli who called him. The idea of being a servant and the willingness to serve are what may be trials for us in terms of how we live.

Samuel does not recognize the voice of the Lord. That, too, might be a problem for us. First, we need to be listening. Are we, or are we merely going through the motions? Responding to God with "Here I am" is a magnificent way to react to God. It is not that God does not know where we are but saying that can serve as a reminder to us that we are stewards and servants to Him, and it implies we are prepared to hear what He wants us to do.

"Here I am" is said numerous times by those in the Old Testament including Abraham, Jacob, Moses, Isaiah, and by Ananias in the New Testament. When Jesus says, "Come follow me," as He does to us, do we hear Him, and even more importantly do we respond, and do we follow?

In order to do that properly we have to be prepared to serve Him and others. Thus, like Samuel, we need to listen, and then we need to serve. At a recent papal audience, Pope Francis said, "Love and charity are service, helping others, serving others. When you forget yourself and think of others, this is love!" www.theCatholicSteward.com
