Our Catholic Community Information Continued: Pro Life News

Since we have no Abortion Facilities in Galesburg, praise the Lord, and Knox Co Right to Life does not feel the community is ready for peaceful vigils at Walgreens and CVS against chemical abortions, we have been asked to have prayer services at our churches promoting Pro-Life. We are in the planning stages, having our Holy Hour October 5th dedicated to protecting our babies in the womb. Also, we will be inviting Dawn, the coordinator of the Pregnancy Center in Galesburg to speak to us about the baby bottle fund-raiser for the Center. Let us do our part to Save Our Babies. Updates to follow for Celebration for Life.

Eucharistic Minister of Holy Communion Training

Reflection and Training Days for new, returnees, and current Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion – will include refreshments – plan for approximately one and a half hours, either on Saturday, November 18th at 8:00 a.m. or Wednesday, November 22nd following the 5:30 p.m. Mass—both days will be held at Saint John Vianney Church & Hall, 313 S West St, Cambridge, IL. There will be sign up sheets available in October. If you are interested in becoming an EMHC, please speak to Fr. Ghislain or Fr. Haake as soon as possible.

Join Our Team

Visitation is looking for a Middle School Science and Physical Education teacher. It could possibly be another middle school subject area with the correct credentials. Please send your inquiries to Wayne Brau at wbrau@visitationcatholic.com or call 309-856-7451. OR Visitation would be interested in a part time teacher for middle school religion. If you would be interested, please contact Wayne Brau at wbrau@visitationcatholic.com or call 309-856-7451.

Uniform Closet

Our Uniform Closet is overflowing with gently used uniform pieces! All items are completely free for our Visitation families. If you have any questions, contact Mrs. Stevenson at estevenson@visitationcatholic.com For dress code requirements, visit our website dress code page at visitationcatholic.com/dress-code
